

All Planning Commissioners serving cities in Yamhill County,
you are cordially invited to attend:

Planning Commissioner Training Event

sponsored by Mid-Willamette Valley Council of Governments and hosted by the City of Carlton

Monday, August 12, 2024
6:00 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.

In-person* at the newly constructed Carlton Civic Center located at 191 E. Main Street, Carlton

Synopsis: Provides an overview of the statewide planning system and how it began 50 years ago. Participants will learn about the state and local relationship; how it developed and how it works today. Training also covers important legal aspects of Oregon meeting law, including declarations of ex parte contact, bias, and conflict of interest. The last half hour includes an interactive exercise.

Speakers / Facilitators: Jim Jacks, MWVCOG and City Planner for the City of Lafayette; Scott Whyte, MWVCOG and City Planner for the City of Carlton; and Tyler Yeoman-Millette, City Attorney for the cities of Carlton, Yamhill, and Sheridan.

Cost: Free. Thank you serving on your local Planning Commission! If you plan to attend, please contact Linda Hansen, MWVCOG, at lhansen@mwvcog.org or 503-540-1602.
